

ukulele rocks! more!

Barre Chords

Major Minor 7th Minor 7th

To know which barre chord you are playing, you need to be able to name the notes on the 'A' string fret board.

Each fret is a semi-tone (small interval between notes) higher than the last.

Which ever fret your first finger is barring on, names the chord.

So, the following chord diagram is of C Major...

C Major

ukulele rocks! more!

Barre Chords

Let Me Entertain You

Bb / / / | C# / / / | Eb / / / | Bb / / / ||

'Jazzed up' Smoke on The Water!

Bb C# Eb | Bb C# E Eb | Bb C# Eb | C# Bb ||
1 4 6 1 4 7 6 1 4 6 4 1

We can also use fret numbers with the major chord shape...

Mix barre chords with ordinary chords now to play a riff from 'C'mon Everybody'...

F / / / | Bb / / / | C / Bb / | F / / / ||

Try using the following strumming pattern with 'C'mon Everybody'...

D-UD-UDU | D-UD-UDU | D D D D | D-UD-UDU ||